Stenhouse & Carron Parish Church finding aid

In 1963 the congregations of Stenhouse Parish Church and Carron Parish Church were united to form Stenhouse & Carron Parish Church.

It initially sat within the presbytery of Linlithgow and Falkirk and from 1976 in the presbytery of Falkirk.

The church building formerly known as McLaren Memorial Church was begun in 1897 to celebrate Dr McLaren's 50th anniversary and was completed in 1899 and dedicated in 1900. There are four stained glass windows by Dr Douglas Strachan.
