

FALKIRK ARCHIVESRecords of Organisations*Kelvinbank Badminton Club finding aid

Despite the name, the Kelvinbank Badminton Club was based in the Falkirk area. Most members were from Falkirk, Grangemouth and Larbert. The club ceased activities during the Second World War. There is no indication that it re-commenced after the war.

Reference No	Date	Description
A1663.001	1936-1939	Correspondence mainly addressed to Mr Percy Harding, Garden Terrace, Falkirk from members of the club concerning various outings, also circular from J W Young, secretary of the club advising of an outing to 'Sinbad the Sailor' in Edinburgh, also included accounts from W Alexander & Sons for the hire of coaches for outings, also account from 'The Grand Restaurant', Edinburgh; also includes circular from Allan H Finlayson, secretary of the club advising of the cessation of the club's activities until 'normal peacetime' (11 items)